

FEEDBACK REPORT

1.FEEDBACK ON TEACHERS

- More than 95% of the students given the feedback that teacher's have depth knowledge and mastery on the subject.
- Regarding the Clarity of explanation & communication skill majority of the students are fully satisfied .
- More than 90% of the students are of the opinion that the teachers are preparing well for the classes.
- Students opined that impartial student evaluation is being done by the teachers.
- 80% of the students are having the opinion that teachers are capable to inspire them.
- 84% of the students agree with the punctuality of teachers in engaging the classes.
- As the students of language and literature they are least associated with practical classes, however they got classes related to Hindi computing as practical.
- 75% of the students agree with the teacher's ability to invite questions.
- By organizing Seminars and Workshops students are getting plenty of opportunities for discussions and creative thinking.

- 90% of the students agree that teachers are regular in engaging classes.
- Individual attention and remedial classes are provided for weaker students.
- 80% of students opined that teachers are available to students outside the classes also.
- Almost all the teachers are motivating the students.
- Most of the students have the opinion that teachers are efficient in class room management.
- 90 % students are willing to take another courses from the same teacher.
- During Covid pandemic period all teachers used ICT enabled teaching methods. Few students reported that use of modern teaching aids are not sufficient in earlier days.

ACTION TAKEN REPORT

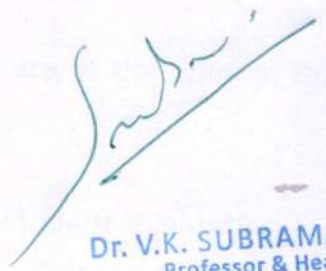

The feedback regarding teacher and courses were discussed in the Department Council and teachers reported their willingness to take corrective measures to overcome the drawbacks from their own side. Self evaluation also done by the teachers and necessary directions to improve the shortcomings received from the feedback.

2.COURSE REPORT

Students have given feedback on each course and given many suggestions. They are more interested in the papers, which are useful for employability. As far as courses related to literature are concerned students feel easy to study the paper.

The feedback of the students are discussed in the Department Council and properly communicated to the Board of Studies.

Dr. V.K. SUBRAMANIAN
Professor & Head
Department of Hindi
University of Calicut,
Calicut University P.O.
Malappuram Dist. Kerala- 673635