

Report 2020-21

Lecture series conducted by Research Forum

Department of Hindi

University of Calicut

“Jnanothpadanathinte Rashtreeyam”

Prof. Dr. T. V. Madhu, faculty from Department of Philosophy, Calicut University, was invited for a lecture series on 7th January 2020. “Jnanothpadanathinte Rashtreeyam” was the topic of the session. The process of production of knowledge in universities and culture of knowledge developed among young research scholars was the mainly discussed in the session. MPhil and Research scholars around 60 members participated in the series.

“Stree Paksheey Chintan Ke Vividh Aayam”

Head and faculty from Sree Sankaracharya University of Sanskrit, Regional centre, Thrissur, Dr. Babu K. Viswanath delivered a lecture on the topic “Stree paksheey chintan ke vividh aayam”. Discussion was about Feminism, Womenism, Eco-Feminism, Feminism in Post-modernism and new phases of feminism. Participation of around 80 members including PG students, MPhil and Research scholars made the session productive.

“Philosophy of neo Avenues and new Avenues of Language and Literature”

Dr. Herman P. J, Faculty of our Department delivered a Lecture on the Topic “Philosophy of neo Avenues and new Avenues of Language and Literature”, on 10th March 2020. Job opportunities in streams other than teaching was the key point of the talk. Arising demands for Hindi officers and translators in Governmental and Non-Governmental sectors was also discussed in the session. It was an innovative and inspiring session for both PG students and MPhil and Research scholars.